

PEACE WITH GERMANY IN FORCE TODAY

Relations treaty this afternoon is the final act that restores before-the-fact the relations between Germany and France, no arrangements have been made by Germany, so far as can be ascertained here, to resume peace relations with this country.

Kurt von Lersner, head of the German delegation, who it had been reported would be designated as first German charge d'affaires, told the Associated Press today he had not been named for the post and was ignorant of the intention of his appointment. The head of the peace delegation would leave his quarters for the old embassy after the signature of the protocol.

He is still confined to his room under orders from his physician and will not leave it until the hour arrives for him to go to the French foreign office for the final ceremony in the making of peace.

ALLIES DEEPLY SENSIBLE OF U. S. ABSTENTION.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—Regret over America's abstention from participation in the ratification of the treaty of Versailles is again expressed in editorial printed in this morning's newspapers.

"America's absence," says the Telegraph, "clouds alike the prospect of the present and the future. It weakens seriously the moral authority of the League of Nations and the sense of security regarding the immediate future. The allies have waited until they could wait no longer and must now go forward alone, deeply sensible of the loss they have sustained, but still hoping that sooner or later they will be rejoined by the great republic."

Referring, like other journals, to political conflicts in America regarding the league and the Versailles treaty, the Chronicle says: "The fact is not very reassuring to Europeans who are living in a world shattered by war. While Americans continue to debate we may derive some crumbs of comfort from the fact that men like Mr. William Jennings Bryan and Gilbert N. Hitchcock, Democratic leader in the United States senate, have no illusions about the danger of delay for Europe and the effect it has had upon American prestige."

BERNSTOFF SAYS GERMANY UNABLE TO MEET TREATY.

BERLIN, Jan. 10.—That Germany will not be able to carry out the terms of the peace treaty was the opinion expressed today by Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, in the present government.

Action of City Council Is Resented in Letter By Civil Service Board

Unless the city council decided to reconsider its refusal to follow the recommendations of the civil service board providing increases of salaries and rescinds its action repealing certain ordinances under which the board operates as well as its resolution authorizing the office of efficiency expert under the board, resort to the courts will be taken, according to an implied threat contained in a letter addressed to the council today by J. F. Chambers, president pro tem.

The board held a special meeting last night to consider the matter as a result of the following statement of the board's position was prepared and transmitted today to the council:

URGENT RECONSIDERATION.
On November 25, 1919, after a careful investigation and after due consideration, the civil service board made certain recommendations for increases in salaries of certain employees in the classified service of the city. These recommendations were made with the approval of a majority of the members of the city council, and, therefore, the same were not subject to reconsideration.

The civil service board and staff feel that the recommendations were justified, and, in face of existing economic conditions that then existed and should now exist, the city council should reconsider the action and adopt the recommendations heretofore made.

It is to be regretted that, following the rejection of the recent salary recommendations made by this board, certain members of the city council have, publicly and privately, denounced the action of the board, and have stated that such action was impartial and unjustified, and that the board does not feel it is necessary to defend its action in the matter. It feels that it should, in justification to itself, again say that these recommendations were made in good faith and in accordance with the standards adopted and in effect in commercial business and in other municipalities comparable with our own.

The repealing of the three ordinances affecting certain powers which were given the board for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the civil service act, was an action which was unwarranted and uncalled for, and the council should not have justified itself by resorting to this course, ostensibly because the board's action was not in accordance with certain salary increases for the city service. It would appear that this was a personal matter, and this action was taken simply because certain members of the city council personally dislike some of the members of the civil service board.

The members of the civil service board.

The abolition of the proposition of Efficiency Accountant, in the office of the board, was another demonstration of the personal animus on behalf of certain members of the City Council against certain members of the Civil Service Board, and will result in injuring the Civil Service system of this city. It is greatly to be regretted that the civil service system, as it tends to disrupt the city service and demoralize the business of the city government.

The board's main object is to see that the city service is conducted on the merit plan—that a dollar's worth of work is given for a dollar's worth of pay. It is the other function to see that the employees are fairly compensated for the service they render, so that they may be encouraged to perform efficient work, and that they may be protected in their position in consequence thereof.

The board feels that the creation of the position of Efficiency Expert, to work under the City Council, is a blow at the merit system; that it is a political move to disrupt the Civil Service of the city, and to bring the same into disrepute; that it will result in the slogging of city positions, and the general dissatisfaction of the whole service; that, by its partial investigations, a majority of the City Council will be made to feel that it will not affect the United States officials, while, technically, the state of war between this country and Germany is still existing, trade between the two countries is being restricted, and the United States, however, will not be represented at the meetings of the League of Nations until the state of war is ended.

Provision for the President to issue the call for the initial meeting of the council is made in the peace treaty, and officials explained that in signing the peace treaty would not be acting in his capacity as President of the United States.

Glass Seeks $150,000,000 To Aid Starving Europeans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Authorizing to advance $150,000,000 for food relief in Austria, Poland and Armenia was asked of Congress today by Secretary Glass.

Glass said this amount would relieve the situation until the next harvest and is imperative, he said, "to alleviate a desperate situation, affecting millions of people."

Under the plan proposed by the secretary the loans would be made out of the $1,000,000,000 wheat guaranty fund and would be used in establishing credits in this country not only for Austria, Poland and Armenia, but for other suffering countries.

FIFTY MILLIONS MORE MAY BE ASKED FOR.

An exact estimate of the European needs is "impossible," the secretary declared, adding that it might later be necessary to ask congress to grant $50,000,000 additional.

Assistant Secretary Davis, presenting Glass' letter, told the house ways and means committee that the situation was vitally interested, because if those countries are not fed, disastrous results are feared, which would seriously affect the financial stability of the world.

He said, "We are willing to do all that we can, adding that they will likely transport the food, and also supply some clothing. The burden, however, he said, would be placed on the United States because the American foodstuffs were the 'only surplus supply.'"

By the government grain corporation handling the supplies, Davis said, the movement would be such as "not to disturb our own prices of food."

Some form of securities would be obtained from the foreign countries before any credits were established. Davis told the committee, adding that he did not want to "mislead the committee into thinking the loans are attractive as investments."

The food situation in Austria has been given serious consideration by the supreme council at Paris and suggestions that the United States aid in relief work there have been made.

Baron Eickhoff, head of the Austrian peace delegation, appeared in a statement published in this country today for aid for his people, who, he said, were threatened with starvation and death by starvation during the winter.

Congress a year ago apportioned $100,000,000 for food relief in Europe and this was distributed through an international commission headed by Herbert Hoover.

VON BRINCKEN TO FIGHT FOR WIFE

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 10.—Wilhelm von Brincken, former military attaché of the German consulate at San Francisco, is on his way to California today to win back the love of his wife, who divorced him while he was serving twenty months of a two-year term in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island for violation of the neutrality laws of the United States.

Von Brincken was released from prison yesterday afternoon and later in the day proved to the satisfaction of United States Commissioner Thos. W. Hammond that he was a pauper. I am through with Germany forever. All I hope to have is in California."

I am going to San Francisco to fight for the ones I love," said Von Brincken just before he boarded a train for San Francisco last night.

Legion Post Brands Dempsey As Slacker

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 10.—An American Legion post went on record today as branding Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, as a "slacker."

The local post took that action after showing Dempsey had appropriated a small amount of money to bet on Georges Carpentier when the two men meet.

Co-eds at Mills Are Urged to Study Bees

A variation of the old adage, "Sugarcane, go to the ant," was delivered to Mills College students in the course of a lecture by Mrs. F. L. Richardson of Highwood, as "student, go to the bee," Mrs. Richardson, a student in the Mills class, urged bee culture as a lucrative and interesting pursuit for the college woman. She cited instances of those who had made a success of the line and urged the students to take up a study of the subject during their summer vacations.

DEAL IS PENDING FOR PURCHASE OF THE OAKLAND CLUB

SECOND LAST SET OF GAMES IN TRIBUNE LEAGUES TO BE DECIDED TOMORROW AFTERNOON

LOCAL MEN TALKING BUSINESS WITH THE OAKLAND DIRECTORS

Foreman Del Howard Came and Went Without Being Seen by Anyone But Herbie.

Three local capitalists have made an offer for the Oakland baseball club and the franchise may change hands before the opening of the 1920 season.

"There is a deal pending" admitted J. Cal Ewing, president of the club this morning but there is no assurance that it will go through. Three local men have been negotiating for the franchise for several weeks and we have talked the matter over. They have named the amount they would be willing to pay for the club and I have named the amount it will cost them to obtain possession. There is a slight difference in the figures but there is a good chance of the deal going through.

For obvious reasons Ewing would not give the names of the men who would obtain control of our beloved Oaks, but he intimated that they were men who were able to put the deal through if a price could be agreed upon.

The men who are seeking the franchise are well known Oaklanders. I tried to force offers a long time ago and I should like to see the franchise for information from certain financial circles. I pay no attention to local business men and they are in earnest, otherwise I would not give them a chance to make an offer.

Del Howard, one of the principal forces in the deal, has been in town for three days but has disappeared without being interviewed by anyone but Herbie Moore. Ewing said he did not see Howard. Cal Ewing did not see Howard. Cal had a talk with the manager over the phone and discussed the deal for the club that is now pending. However nothing was decided and Howard is still in the city. He is taken for granted that Howard will retire from baseball and go into business.

Van Winkle To Continue 'I Am' Talks

Rev. H. A. Van Winkle of the First Christian church will continue the "I Am's" series of Sunday morning sermons through January and February. The first of the series was given last Sunday to most enthusiastic congregation. The morning theme for tomorrow will be "I Am the Door." The sermon in the evening, "A Light from the Prison Cell." There will be special music rendered by the large choir.

As something unusual to appeal to the young people of this church, the official board has announced that they will award five prizes to the five best reports of Rev. Van Winkle's Sunday evening sermons during the month of February, that is, any one sermon the individual may choose to report. This is for high school students or any one else from 15 to 18 years of age. The prizes are $10, $5, $3, $2 and $1. The winners will be chosen by the members of the official board. The members of the official board were elected last Sunday at the close of the morning service, and were immediately installed by Rev. Van Winkle. Mr. Charles Titus comes to the presidency of the board with the most experience in Christian work.

WILL MANY OR FEW BE SAVED?

Our Place Beyond the Grave

By DR. JAMES E. TALMAGE

For the Council of the Twelve, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints; Salt Lake City, Utah.

Note: For free copies of other articles of this series, send request to the author.

In the course of our Lord's last journey from Galilee to Jerusalem, which proved to be his solitary march in the desert, he threaded the towns and villages of the region, teaching and preaching by the way. Multitudes were impressed by His lofty precepts and His simple exposition of plain, every-day religion; and many questions were submitted to Him, some based on curiosity or even less worthy motives, others inspired by genuine interest.

When said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? (Luke 13:30).

The inquiry was and is of great moment. We observe as a striking and significant fact, that while the question was so simple, the answer was so profound.

He gave us no specific or direct answer, but the question was answered; though He gave a most impressive sermon in connection therewith. Note again the question, and part of the response:

"Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

As the succeeding verses tell, the instruction was enlarged upon to show that neglect or procrastination in obeying the requirements of salvation may result in dire jeopardy to the soul. Moreover, the people were warned that their Jewish lineage would not save them; for many who were of the covenant people were false and were to be rejected.

In the presence, while upon the terraces would be thrust out. So it is that "There are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last." (Verse 30).

Uplifting and invaluable as this teaching is, it is, nevertheless, but an indirect hearing upon the clear-cut question of the many or the few.

The people to whom Jesus was speaking were incapable of understanding a plain answer to the question, and would have been misled thereby. For, had He said "Few" they would have construed the reply to mean that only a few and they the Jews, would find a place in "Abraham's bosom," while all the rest would be consigned to hell. Had the Lord answered "Many" they would have taken His word to mean that the great majority shall attain supreme bliss in the kingdom of heaven, and only a few are to find a place in hell. Either inference is untrue.

Later, on the night of the betrayal, the Lord said to the sorrowful Apostles: "In my Father's house are many mansions; it were not so, I would have told you, that ye might not be afraid. I am going to prepare a place for you, that where I go, ye may go also."

Paul comprehended the great truth, as appears from his declaration that in the resurrected some souls are superior to others, and that some are comparable in glory to the sun; others shall attain but a terrestrial state, of which the brightness of the moon is typical; while the graded conditions of others shall be as the varying lights of the stars. See 1 Cor. 15:41, 42. Here we have two kingdoms of glory distinctively specified—the celestial and the terrestrial; and a third to which no name is given.

Modern revelation is in strict accord with the Word of ancient record, and is explicit in affirming the graded conditions that await the souls of men. As made known in 1832 through the prophet Joseph Smith (see Doctrine & Covenants, Sec. 78) there are three main kingdoms or degrees of glory in the hereafter: (1) the Celestial, of which the sun is relatively typical; (2) the Terrestrial, of which the moon is the type; and (3) the Telestial, which is the kingdom referred to by Paul but without name.

The Celestial inheritance is for those who have accepted the Gospel of Christ and have rendered valiant service in the cause of righteousness; those who have yielded obedience to all the laws and ordinances of the Gospel.

Into the Terrestrial order shall enter those who have failed to lay hold on the privileges of eternal life while in the flesh; "honorable men of the earth" perhaps according to human standard, yet blinded "by the craftings" of false teachers, false philosophy, science falsely so called. These shall inherit glory, but not a fulness thereof.

The Telestial state is provided for those who have rejected the Gospel and testimony of Christ, and who merit condemnation. "These are they who are liars, and sorcerers, and adulterers, and whoremongers, and whosoever loves and makes a lie." Among them shall be varied degrees, even as the stars differ in glory.

Far below this condition is that of the sons of perdition—those who have sinned in full consciousness, those who have shed innocent blood. The comparative few who reach this state of extreme degradation are doomed to dwell "with the devil and his angels in eternity, where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched, which is their torment."

Thus, those who attain to the Telestial state are saved from the depths of perdition; while the inhabitants of the higher glories are saved from the condition of the lost eternally.

Consider again the question asked of Christ: "Lord, are there few that be saved?"

And the answer revealed in the present age: "But behold, and lo, we saw the glory and the inhabitants of the celestial world, that they were as innumerable as the stars in the firmament of heaven, or as the sand upon the sea shore." (Doctrine & Covenants, 76:109).

SUITS AGAINST PRODUCERS OF MILK TO BEGIN

Five suits will be filed in San Francisco courts within ten days demanding forfeiture of charters of five milk producing and distributing agencies in California on the ground that they have violated the law specifying profiteering. The suits were filed last night by U. S. Webb, attorney-general, asserting that he had evidence that the milk supplied to many of the principal California cities was controlled by a monopoly and the supply had been deliberately limited so that prices might be kept up.

Complaints against these producers and distributors were prepared by private parties, and the attorney-general had been petitioned to institute court action in the name of the state. This permission was granted, but the attorney-general found it necessary to amend the complaints to provide for state prosecution.

DEFENDANT NAMED.
The Associated Dairymen of California and four affiliated corporations will be made defendants, Webb announced.

The attorney-general points out in his analyses of the situation that one of the concerns attacked in the pleadings shows an operating surplus in its business of $50,000, deducting capital expenses, and that it has violated the law by engaging in business other than milk distribution, namely, the handling of eggs and live stock. The annual production value of $3,000,000.

SUIT IS SANCTIONED.
Permission to bring dissolution suits against the alleged combine is granted in the opinion of Mrs. Merton W. Webster, club woman of Sacramento; George N. Renner, milk distributor of Stockton; S. M. Bailey, former member of the Imperial Valley Association, and R. Holcomb of Stockton, Renner's partner.

The concerns involved are the Associated Dairymen of California, parent organization; Imperial Valley Milk Producers' Association of El Centro; Northern California Milk Producers' Association of Los Angeles; J. M. Henderson Jr., Stockton branch; and the California Milk Producers' Association of Fresno and the California Milk Producers' Association of Los Angeles.

As a non-profit corporation the Associated Dairymen of California says Webb, occupies the operation of the federal income tax and the state tax and is not subject to regulation by the commissioner of corporations.

The attorney-general's language in respect to the control of the product and the price by the alleged combine is as follows:

"Another feature of the matter under consideration, which is made apparent by the record before me, and which I feel it my public duty to consider and advise to heretofore, is the fact that the alleged combine and character of the parent and affiliated corporations under consideration and the advance in the price of milk to the consumer, which is apparently due at least in part to this general monopolistic scheme.

"As milk, butter and cheese constitute three of the most essential necessities of food products, it can be conceived no more vicious type of monopoly than one which controls the supply and price of from 75 to 80 per cent of such products entering the two principal centers of distribution within this state."

Boycott on milk continues in Alameda according to Mrs. May Larkin Harrison, president of the Housewives' League, who declares that 16 cents a quart rate still maintains throughout the city. The schedule advanced from 15 to 16 cents on January 1. For several months Alameda consumers have been paying 15 cents a quart. The women have expressed themselves as willing to accept the scale of December 31.

WILL SUE PRODUCERS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—Action against the so-called "milk trust" in California will follow the ruling of Attorney General Webb, granting leave to bring suit for dissolving the so-called trust, it was announced today. In his opinion the attorney-general grants the petition of clubwomen and independent milk distributors to bring suit against the Associated Dairymen of California; Imperial Valley Milk Producers' Association of El Centro; Northern California Milk Producers' Association of Los Angeles; J. M. Henderson Jr., Stockton branch; and the California Milk Producers' Association of Fresno and the California Milk Producers' Association of Los Angeles.

Suit will be instituted immediately, said Mrs. Merton W. Webster, clubwoman, to whom the attorney-general has granted permission to sue under the anti-trust laws. Plans are being made today for such action, she said here.

Alameda County Women to Wage War on Prune Prices Which Doubled Overnight

Investigation into the increased prices on flour and the advance in government stores in San Francisco last week of prunes from 11 to 23 cents, will be demanded of the department of justice at Washington, as well as the United States district attorney's office in this district, by the Alameda high costs of living committee and by the Housewives' League of Alameda county. Advanced flour prices were this morning brought to the attention of Mrs. Annette Adams and special Federal Agent John Atwood of San Francisco, by Alameda county women. Already the probe in the increased prices of prunes has been started.

According to Mrs. L. C. Grasser, president of Oakland Housewives' League, the women will be looking toward a decrease in the costs of meat, butter and eggs.

Because a quart through Alameda county today of the public will not defer the representatives of the Housewives' League from waiting upon the district attorney on Monday to request an investigation into the alleged profiteering which is carried on in Alameda county. The women will request the co-operation of the office in outlining the legal steps which may properly be taken by them.

That suits will be brought in Alameda county under yesterday's ruling of Attorney General U. S. Webb, at an early date, was intimated this morning.

Special Federal Investigator John Atwood, Samuel Green, secretary of the Boardman Council, and Louis C. Glass, will be the speakers at a mass meeting of the women of Alameda county called in Oakland city hall on Monday at 3 p. m. under the auspices of the federal housewives' leagues of Alameda county, to confer on the high cost of living. An open forum wherein any woman may speak will be a feature of the day. This program is arranged by Mrs. H. J. Platts, representing the Oakland league.

"The housewives are satisfied with the victory in reducing the price of milk," commented Mrs. L. C. Grasser, president of the local organization, this morning. "If there is any dispute among the producers and consumers, it is their own. The Housewives' League were not intended to advertise any one firm above another and should it be found they have been used for exploitation, they will advise the consumer in the future."

According to the police, she started at 16 by marrying Hoffman. She is alleged to have admitted marrying the four men but pleaded she "didn't know it was against the law."

Lewis, fell in love with a nurse who cared for him while he was recovering from an operation for appendicitis while his wife was visiting her parents in Oregon, was granted a divorce by Judge T. W. Mrs. Lewis, with whom the couple formerly lived, testified that the nurse was Miss Neil Ralph of Stockton, and that Lewis had said he had intended to marry her, that he had spent his vacation at Lake Tahoe with her as well as his weekends at Stockton, and that while he was there she had tucked him up in bed and had notified him when his bath was ready in the morning. There is one child.

JURY PROBES INJECTION OF FATAL POISON

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEAST WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

MARIKAN, Wis., Jan. 10.—With a charge of murdering his wealthy mother-in-law formally lodged against Dr. John A. Freudenberger, the authorities here today began a searching investigation into four other deaths which have occurred in the physician's immediate family in the past four years.

The accusation against Dr. Freudenberger is that he caused the death of Mrs. Nettie Duffies, his wife's mother, by an injection of a mustard solution.

One of the principal bits of evidence upon which the coroner's jury decided was a deposition by Grace Duffies, a trained nurse. She was formerly in the Duffies home. She said that Mrs. Freudenberger had administered the mustard solution to her mother "by injections of mustard."

By the death of Mrs. Duffies, Dr. Freudenberger and his wife became sole heirs to the large estate of Mrs. Duffies, which is variously estimated at from $250,000 to $400,000.

RESULTS OF EXAMINATION.
The charge against Dr. Freudenberger resulted directly from a post mortem examination of the body by Dr. H. H. Bunting, professor of pathology at the University of Wisconsin.

The deaths in the Duffies family began to occur within a year after Dr. Freudenberger married into the family, according to the authorities here. Other deaths which are to be inquired into are:

Dr. Freudenberger's second husband, Mrs. Nettie Duffies; Mrs. Mary Terry, Mrs. Duffies' mother; Alfred Duffies Sr., father of the second husband, and Samuel Terry, her brother.

Mrs. Nettie Duffies died on November 1, 1919. The day after her death, the district attorney received a mysterious note, suggesting that her death be investigated.

WIDOW WEDS FOR HOME

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich., Jan. 10.—The mysterious suicide of the death of Henry Donaldson, a young farmer, was deepened here today after the verdict of a coroner's jury that he died of arsenic poisoning, administered by persons unknown to the jury.

Donaldson's brother, Elmer Donaldson, thirteen days after her funeral, returned home for himself and the children," she said in explaining the sudden marriage.

The body of the victim agent sent to the coroner's office for an analysis. It was found that they contained arsenic.

Alleged "Freak"

Burglar Loses Plea
Superior Judge Harris yesterday indicated he would deny the motion of Attorney D. Collins Jr., for the quashing of proceedings against Paender, alleged freak burglar, ball jumper, letter writer, who was to appear for trial.

Paender, who was alleged to have been concerned with a series of freak crimes, recently jumped his bond and then wrote a letter to Deputy District Attorney Harris saying that he was not really a ball jumper, but that as Judge St. Sure had granted a temporary restraining order staying proceedings on the commitment issued by Judge Edgar of Berkeley, he was not due in court yet, but would appear at once if the final decision went against him.

Church.

Distillers Offer Gallon of Booze to Every Citizen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Even Kentucky hospitality didn't jar Congress today from its dry pedestal. The offer of the Kentucky Distillers' Association to give every person in the country a gallon of whisky free if Congress made it possible, didn't find much hope even among the wet members of Congress. They pointed out that the House is two-thirds dry and the Senate even more dry and that no legislation looking toward a wet spell had any chance of life.

TWO THUGS BEAT CLERK, ROB HOTEL

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—After taking possession of the elevator in which they were being taken to inspect a room on the third floor of the Hotel Astoria, 314 Bush street, two unmasked thugs early this morning beat the night clerk, Richard H. Scott, into unconsciousness.

According to Scott he was alone on duty early this morning when the two men entered and asked to be shown a room. They followed Scott into the elevator and he started the elevator for the third floor, when without any warning one of the men struck Scott from the controller bar and reversed gear while at the same instant the other man struck him a crushing blow on the head.

Guests of the house found Scott lying on the floor of the elevator in the basement of the building and the contents of the office safe scattered about the room. Scott was taken to the Harbor Emergency Hospital and given the police a description of his assailants.

Inspector H. E. Green Stricken at City Hall

His office in the city hall this morning, Inspector H. E. Green, former captain of detectives, became suddenly ill and was removed to his home. Summers.

Navy Plans Training of High School Boys

300 MEN WANTED!

Dry Goods—Clothing

DON'T DELAY!

INVESTIGATE TODAY!

J. C. Penney Company

Now operating 157 stores

is planning to open

100 additional stores early in 1920

What will your future be if you remain in your present position?

Even though you are now employed at a very good salary does the outlook satisfy you?

The ambition of most men is to have an actual financial interest in the business in which they are engaged. Do you see any such opportunity ahead for you?

The investment of money is not necessary for your success with us.

When you consider that this organization of 297 stores started in 1902 with one small store you can readily appreciate how our plan of expansion is succeeding with the very best indications that our growth will increase proportionately as time goes on.

The personnel of the J. C. Penney Company is comprised of ambitious young men who came into the organization under the same plan that we are ready to offer to the 300 men we now seek.

More than 300 men, during the comparatively few years since 1902, are now either managers or financial partners in the business and our plan of operation has made that possible.

After relatively few years a great many of these men have each secured partnership interests in several stores.

Briefly the plan is this:

These men came with us at first as retail salesmen, some of them even sold out their own business to do so, after realizing the greater possibilities of co-operation in effort, and the progress of these men has, to a great extent, been a matter of their own ability and efforts.

Accordingly as business has justified expansion, new stores have been opened and managed by men selected from the salesforce. If the men made a success of the management they were eventually sold a one-third interest in a new store and proceeded to manage that new store.

From then on these men automatically obtain partnership interests in other stores that are the outgrowth of the one in which they first receive an interest.

Thus in time men usually acquire interests in more than one store and the possibilities for growth are not hampered but very much encouraged.

NOTE.—To men who do not possess the capital required, at the time they are offered one-third interest in a store, money is loaned by the J. C. Penney Company and repaid to the company from the subsequent profits.

The merchandise we sell in all our stores comprises Dry Goods, Men's, Women's and Children's Clothing, Shoes and Kindred Goods. Only men of experience in the retail selling of these lines may avail themselves of this opportunity.

Imperative Qualifications: Thorough Experience, Good Habits, Highest reference. Ages 25 to 35.

WOMAN ASK FOR ACTION ON GARBAGE

A demand for an immediate investigation of the plan of the Universal Conservation Company for the erection of a 49,000 tons per year capacity incinerator, and the installation of a modern system of collecting garbage in Oakland by the city council is made by Oakland Center, California Civic League. The matter was presented at the regular meeting at Hotel Oakland yesterday by the municipal committee which has given weeks of study to the proposition.

The resolution urged the council to take early action toward the installation of some modern system of garbage collection. Two propositions have been made by the conservation company. One proposes the erection of an incinerating plant of 49,000 tons per year capacity, the same to be leased to the city for a period of ten years at an annual rental of $60,000 payable in advance. By methods of conservation and salvage 420 a ton is guaranteed in return by the company for the finished product.

FAVOR SEGREGATION.
The second plan, however, received greater favor by the civic workers. It proposed the erection of a similar plant which should be owned and operated by the company. It asked for the passage of an ordinance by the city council demanding a segregation of garbage. The contract with the city whereby the company would pay annually $20,000 would extend over a period of ten years. The same rate as at present time would be charged consumers for the removal of garbage.

An investigation of these two plans was asked by the women. "It is to the Federal Trade Commission the people must look for information rather than to the Department of Justice," former Congressman William Kent told Oakland center yesterday. "It is this body which will determine whether Congress may act and what the actual conditions are."

WOMEN BIG FACTORS.

Kent discussed the Kenyon-Kendrick bill.

"The people of the United States must recognize the need of getting back to simpler forms," he said. Women by dying in and wanting to know the cause of the waste factors in the elimination of waste. The same sort of work that they put into the suffrage fight must now be put into the economic fight.

There is a tremendous need to do away with non-essentials and unnecessary trills."

Kent pronounced himself an ardent advocate of the co-operative movement. He declared himself a disciple of the "glass pocketbook system."

Miss Elizabeth Livermore, representing the Consumers' Co-operative League, outlined the organization in San Francisco, where a chain of stores are established.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. L. C. Grasser, president of the Oakland Housewives' League, who presided as chairman.

Thousands Are Frozen to Death in Russian Blizzard

REVAL, Jan. 1.—Thousands were frozen to death in a blizzard which swept across Estonia on New Year's Day. Reports received here state that three hundred bodies of refugees were found in a forest between this city and Narva. Many fugitives from the collapsed army led by General Mudnich in his recent offensive against Petrograd have perished in the drifting snow.

DAZED VICTIM OF THUG FLEES

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—When Policemen Leo McAllister and Frank Campbell ran to Sixteenth and Howard streets early this morning, two men who were struggling with a third man, broke away and started to run.

The policemen overtook one of the pair while the other, in spite of a shot fired in the direction, jumped on a fire escape of the Labor Temple, clambered rapidly to the top of the building and disappeared after crossing the roofs of several adjacent buildings.

With the idea of continuing the pursuit the police instructed John Whitlock, 2130 Third street, who had appeared upon the scene, to take the victim of the holdup to police headquarters and wait there with him.

As Whitlock advanced upon the dazed person who had been set upon by the two thugs, the latter exclaimed: "Another holdup," dashed madly away, pursued by Whitlock. The latter was disarmed, however, and far as police records show the holdup victim still is in full flight.

The man taken into custody gave his name as Vincent Sarria. He showed no police record, was taken from the unidentified citizen, had been hidden.

When the unidentified citizen regains his equilibrium he can get the subject was made from his office clerk's office in the hall of justice.
